EXCURSION TO VISIT COUNTY

Railroad Historical Society Coming By Special Train From Oakland, August 21

Members of the California-Nevada Railroad Historical Society will spend Sunday, August 21, in El Dorado County fulfilling a program which was set up in tentative form on Wednesday by Clement Fisher, Jr., a representative of the organization, who visited here for that purpose.

Mr. Fisher reports that the excursion will include between 350 and 500 members of the society who will leave Oakland Sunday morning in an eight-car special train. The party will leave Sacramento at ten o'clock in the morning, making a stop at Diamond Springs to see the California Door Company railroad.

Upon arrival in Placerville, the excursionists will scatter for an hour for lunch and will re-assemble to continue by automobile to Camino and to see the cable crossing of the American River Canyon on the Michigan-California Lumber Company's railroad.

Upon returning to Placerville, the visitors will disband for dinner and, upon re-assembling, will begin the return journey to Oakland.

Mr. Fisher contacted officers of the Chamber of Commerce concerning transportation for the visitors from Placerville to Camino. The socieyt had hoped to be able to journey directly to Camino by special train but has been advised by officials that this would not be advisable.

Accordingly, Mr. Fisher reported, officers of the chamber of commerce are planning to help in the solution of the problem of transporting the excursionists from Placerville to the lumber company cable and return.

No group dinners or banquets are planned, Mr. Fisher said.

Music Series To Open Oct. 4th

Attractive Offerings Billed For Third Season of Special Events Under Choral Auspices

Contract for the attractions of the 1938 Placerville Music Series has been signed and tickets are ready for distribution, it is announced by offcers of the choral section of the Shakespeare Club which for the past two years has been responsible for bringing to Placerville a number of outstanding artists in the field of music.

The 1938 series, opening October 4 with a Sinfonietta directed by John M. Dotzel, introduces a more ambitious program than has been undertaken in other years and it is hoped that the public support of the series will justify the interest shown by those in charge.

Although the contractual obligations of the choral are increased in making the 1938 series possible, there is no increase in the charge for season tickets admitting to all three events.

Second in the series will be on November 1, presenting Lucille Ehorn, soprano, and the final event will be December 6th, featuring Nina Renalera, Spainsh dancer, with Frederick Saatman, pianist.

The Sinfonietta will be of particular interest to music lovers in the community who found some delight, a few seasons ago, in the formation of a local symphony group which was heard on several occasions. The attraction under the leadership of Maestro Dotzel will, therefore, have a broad appeal to music lovers of the community.

Further information concerning the series may be obtained, and season tickets will be available at the office of this newsppaer or upon inquiry of Mrs. R. A. Healy, musc chairman of the Shakespeare Club.

"$30 EVERY THURSDAY" PROPOSAL AWAITS RULING BY STATE SUPREME COURT

Proponents and Opponents Argue Admissability Of Plan To November Ballot In Hearing Wednesday At Sacramento; Controversy Originates In Attack On Title For Measure

By JOHN TERRELL
United Press Staff Correspondent

SAN FRANCISCO, (UP)—Thousands of California oldsters awaited today for September 3, latest day for the State Supreme Court to rule whether the "ham and eggs" pension plan can go on the November ballot as an initiative.

The plan, hottest issue in the state's political campaign, would, according to its sponsors, provide $30 every Thursday for life to persons 50 years of age and over.

While the sidewalk outside was packed with gray haired pilgrims from throughout the state, the court yesterday heard arguments of those who seek to ban the measure from the ballot and of those who seek to place it there.

Opponents claimed the plan is unconstitutional and would bring economic ruin. Proponents said it would provide a new economic system of plenty.

After hearing arguments and granting five batteries of attorneys—several of whom are candidates for office—time to file additional briefs and answers, the court announced it would take the matter under submission 12 days hence.

The court has until September 3 to act.

The controversy was taken to the high tribunal by two Los Angeles taxpayers who charged the plan's proposed title on the ballot is misleading. The title—"California State Retirement Life Payments Act"—was drawn by State Attorney General Webb's office.

HOOVER, 64, DECLARES "RUBBER STAMP" RULE BROKEN

RENO, Nev., (UP)—Former President Herber Hoover today viewed the defeat of Sen. James P. Pope for the Democratic senatorial nomination in Idaho as a "guarantee that we will not have a rubber stamp congress after this fall's elections."

Returning from a Montana vacation, Hoover made his observation as he stopped here briefly en route to his home at Palo Alto, Calif.

"Wherever the people have been called to decide, from 30 to 50 per cent of the Democrats have voted against a rubber stamp congress," he said.

The former president was 64 years old yesterday.

Both fighters returned to their New Jersey training camps today, faced with the problem of maintaining razor edge condition for seven days. They were ready to go last night at the Polo Grounds, but rain that grew harder by the minute forced Promoter Mike Jacobs to order a postponement.

DOCKWEILER COMPLETES SPEAKING TOUR OF REDWOOD EMPIRE

Congressman John F. Dockweiler, Democratic Candidate for Governor, accompanied by Mr. Paul E. Mudgett, President of the Redwood Empire Association, recently completed a tour of the great Redwood Empire. His itinerary, after leaving San Francisco, included Santa Rosa, where he delivered a radio address before a large group of agricultural leaders; Willits, Ukiah, Garberville, Fortuna, Scotia, Eureka, and across to Redding. From Redding Congressman Dockweiler left by plane for Los Angeles.

In his Santa Rosa speech, the Congressman said that on his becoming a member of the Appropriations Committee of the House, the Agricultural Appropriations Bill came before him as a member of the Committee. Under this appropriation bill he urged and voted for adequate funds for the carrying on of the Weather Bureau, the Forest Service, the Bureau of Public Roads, the Bureau of Dairy Industry, Bureau of Animal Industry, Bureau of Biological Survey, of Chemistry and Soils, Entomology and Plant Quarantine, the Commodity Exchange Association, Bureau of Home Economics, of Plant Industry, Soil Conservation Service, Federal Surplus Commodities and Farm Security Administration. Mr. Dockweiler said he fought for and held appropriations for experimental stations in the State of California, which are of great assistance to the farmers.

He pointed out that as a member of the Appropriations Committee of the House, the matters of Flood Control and Water Conservation have received his earnest attention and through him appropriations have been secured which have resulted in the protection of farms from floods and the development of dams which aid in irrigation of farm lands in the State. As one of the Administration Congressman on the Appropriations Committee of the House, Congressman Dockweiler has been appealed to from all parts of the State of California and as he was the only member with a voice on the above mentioned Committee, he has been in a position to secure and to hold all appropriations for the benefit of the agricultural industries of California.

Under the provisions of the Emergency Crop Loan Division of the Farm Credit Administration, thousands of loans have been secured by the farmers throughout the State and the Congressman stated that he is writing to his many friends who have benefited under this provision, asking them for advice and suggestions as to how this provision can be improved.

Cover Crops Cut Erosion

Demonstration Plots Operated Last Winter Show 65 Per Cent Of Water Lost On Bare Areas

The value of winter cover crops in preventing excessive soil erosion and reducing surface run-off was demonstrated last winter for the benefit of El Dorado County farmers by the Soil Conservation Service. Under the direction of Glenn E. Paxton, Project Manager, technicians of the Service installed a series of run-off plots on the Bongetta ranch situated about a mile east of Placerville on the Tahoe Highway. Measurements taken during last winter's rainy season enabled the technicians to determine just how much soil and water was lost from clean cultivated orchards in comparison with orchards where the soils were protected by a cover crop.

Four plots of one-hundredth of an acre each were used. The plots were six feet wide and approximately seventy-three feet long and were on a slope of about twenty per cent. Two of the plots had all of the vegetation removed and were left without any cover. The remaining two plots were seeded and fertilized in the early Fall in order to establish a cover crop before the beginning of the heavy rains. The run-off from each plot was caught in a tank where it was measured. The soil was allowed to settle and it also was measured.

The two plots with no cover crop lost 32 of the 49 inches of rain that fell by surface run-off. In other words 65 per cent of all the rain that fell ran off and was lost. These same plots lost soil at the rate of 20 tons per acre or about one ninth of an inch of topsoil was washed away during the rainy season. This means that the soil in the orchard without a cover crop is washing away at the rate of an inch every nine years.

Plot number three with a poor stand of cover lost 17 inches or 35 per cent of the rainfall, and lost soil at the rate of 4½ tons per acre. Plot number four had a fair cover crop. It lost only 10 inches or 20 per cent of the rainfall by surface run-off 80 per cent soaking into the ground, and the soil loss was at the rate of only one-half ton to the acre.

These losses are still too high but as the years go by with the permanent cover on this orchard getting thicker and thicker, with the addition of humus brought about by the decaying of vegetative matter, conditions for water absorption should improve and surface run-off and soil losses will grow smaller.

Other similar plots will be installed on different soil types this fall and measurements will be taken during each rainy season. The results of the test so far certainly indicate that a heavy permanent cover crop will greatly reduce run-off and erosion losses in hillside orchards.

BANCROFT'S CANDIDACY FOR SENATORSHIP TOLD IN LETTER

We have a letter from a reader, calling attention to the candidacy of Philip Bancroft for the Republican nomination to be United States Senator.

Mr. Bancroft speaks every Tuesday night to a radio audience over station KFBK, Sacramento, and KPO, San Francisco.

"Mr. Bancroft is a native Californian, a graduate of Harvard and the Harvard Law School, a member of the Pomona Grange and helped organize the American Legion in California. He owns a large farm near Walnut Creek," writes our correspondent.

"He favors the protective tariff. Personally I believe that most of the people of California will find he is expressing in no uncertain terms, their strongest beliefs concerning reciprocal trade treaties, labor unions, relief and all other problems that loom mightily important in all our lives today."

County News

PINO GRANDE

Mrs. Arthur Lawyer, of Uncle Tom's Cabin, was in Pino Grande Tuesday morning on business.

We understand that Mr. and Mrs. J. Carrick are expected home the middle of the week. Mr. Carrick recently underwent an operation on his knee which he injured a few weeks ago at the Pino picnic. He is recovering nicely but it will be sometime before he will be able to return to work. Mr. and Mrs. R. Harrison are planning on driving to San Francisco for them on the Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Prouty, of Placerville, were visitors at Camp 14 on last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Harrison and son drove to Placerville Saturday afternoon where they did some shopping and in the evening took in the carnival.

The young bucks of Camp 14 had quite a time last week with two half-grown cubs. Jack Berry received quite a few scratches and last but not least, one of the cubs took a sudden dislike to Mrs. Frank Roy and when we last heard of her, she was doing a marathon down the track with the cub in close pursuit.

Andy Hamlasher and Oscar Melbye on Saturday, went off the grade near Sand Mountain while returning to Pino Grande from town. Neither was injured and the local fire truck, under the direction of our able fire warden, Bill Immer, with the help of Ike Nolon, succeeded in getting the car back on the road where it proceeded under its own power into camp.

Mrs. J. Cola has been absent from Camp 14 for about two weeks due to illness, first her brother and now her mother.

Mr. E. Tong, of Folsom, is the house guest of Mrs. Harrison.

Mrs. Williams, who has been visiting at the Soderbergs for some time, has returned to her home at Fair Oaks.

Marjory Beckett drove Mrs. Dickson's car to Placerville for her on Thursday. On the way home they saw a large rattlesnake at the side of the road. Marjory stopped the car and tried to kill it, she managed to hit it with a large rock but the snake got away. It no doubt died of its injuries as it was crushed quite badly. August is a bad month for snakes and it is a good idea to always carry a snake bite kit when hiking in the woods and one in your car when you go on a picnic. They only cost about $1.50 and what is that in comparison to a life. Any of the drug stores in Placerville can furnish you with a regulation kit, the kind used by all branches of U. S. Forestry Blister Control camps, C. C. C., etc.

Mrs. Clarence Tidd has been visiting for a few days at Uncle Tom's with her mother, Mrs. A. Lawyer.

The Major family was Placerville business visitors on Thursday, August 4th.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson and son, of Sacramento, have been visiting with Mrs. Thompson's father, G. Parker of Camp 14.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Crawford spent the week end at Grass Valley visiting with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Wilhite were visitors in Placervlle on Saturday afternoon. That evening they took in the dance at Meadow Brook.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Parker were shopping in Sacramento on Saturday.

Mrs. Allen Swansborough, of Mosquito, visited with friends in San Anselmo and San Francisco the past week.

Rose Mary Parker and George Parker, Jr., were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Berry at Bijou, Lake Tahoe.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Crawford were surprised with a house warming party on last Friday night. Twenty friends and neighbors gathered at their home at 8 o'clock. Each guest carried a pound package of somethng eatable. Everything from pancake flour to salt and dog food was received. The evening was spent playing dutch whist. Mrs. Crawford and S. Parker received first prizes with the consolation prize going to Mrs. R. McCarroll and R. Darr. During the evening Mrs. S. Parker announced the engagement of Miss Dorothy Walker and Reginald Darr. The wedding has been set for September 3rd. Those who gathered at the Crawford home were Mr. and Mrs. R. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. S. Parker, Mrs. Williamson, Mrs. Soderberg, Mr. J. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. Saylor, Mr. and Mrs. C. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. R. McCarroll, Mr. and Mrs. H. Dixon and Mr. and Mrs. D. Wilhite.

W. Crosby of the Jack Frost Woolen Mills, was in camp and at Pino this week on his semi-annual visit.

Daniel J. Delaney was electioneering in Pino on Monday of this week.

On Friday, August 5, the Girl Scouts of Pino Grande, under their leader, Mrs. J. Corker, held an open air meeting in the triangle above the schoolhouse. The girls received their first Girl Scout pins. Due to the fact that there was a party planned for that evening only a very few attended. The girls are very busy now trying to earn enough money to buy their uniforms.

J. Nyberg drove to Pino Monday morning where he picked up Andrew Hamlasher and took him to Camino to work on the "10 spot." It broke a connecting rod.

The "8 spot" also was in camp in Monday for repairs on its smoke stack.

G. A. Gould, of Grass Valley, was in Pino on Saturday morning doing business for the Minnesota Woolen Mills.

The Penaflor family were Placerville visitors on Saturday.

The apples up at the old ranch on the double "X" road are getting to be quite a good size. Why not leave them ripen? If picked green they do no one any good. True, a green apple pie tastes just about right ,and green apple sauce isn't bad, but who needs a whole box of green apples for a pie or apple sauce? Let's leave them ripen and then we can all enjoy them Of course, no one minds if you pick a few, but you can't use a whole box of green apples; so give everyone a break, let the apples get ripe, then pick a box or maybe three or four. They will then keep all winter. Don't think I have to beat some one else to them or I won't get any. Instead, we should each think within ourselves, a few for pies and sauce, but this year I won't pick a box until they are ripe and so give all my neighbors and frends an equal chance to pick some for winter, too.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ramsey, Jr., of Placerville, are the parents of a son born Wednesday at Sutter Maternity Hospital, Sacramento.

BRITAN REMINDS ITALY OF NEED TO QUIT SPANISH WAR

LONDON, (UP)—Great Britain warned Italy today that continued Italian intervention in Spain would prejudice the friendly relations of the two countries.

Britain's position was expressed in a strong reminder, which was conveyed to the Italian foreign office in Rome and simultaneously to the Italian embassy in London, that operation of the Anglo-Italian pact was predicated upon withdrawal of Italian aid to Nationalist Spain.

ARCTIC RESCUE PLANE NEARS END OF LONG JOURNEY

ARCTIC BAY, Northwest Territory, (UP)—Father Paul Schulte, the flying priest, took off today on the last lap of an errand of mercy. He was speeding the local priest, Father Julien Coachard to a hospital to be treated for a critical illness.

The destination was Chesterfield Inlet, 800 miles southeast, where the nearest hospital is located.

Father Schulte reported that he had struggled through fog and furious headwinds in a 1600 mile flight here from Churchhill, Ont., where he had received a message last Monday that Father Cochard was ill and needed help quickly.
